Welcome to Our Savior's Lutheran Church

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below,
blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,

before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Altar Flowers are given to the glory of God from Kathy Branes in memory of Gordon Branes.

CANOE TRIP IN AUGUST

Pastor Fred is looking for companions on a BWCA canoe trip in August, probably going into the BWCA around August 11. It is open to young people or adults or families. He has all the gear, so costs are low. Contact him soon so he can purchase the entry permit.

SHOUT OUT FOR SUMMER
 MUSICIANS

Do you have some musical talent you can share? During the summer months when the choirs are on break, we are looking for people to share their musical talents in praise of God at our worship services. Professional expertise not a requirement, just your best effort in praise of God. Sign-up on the Volunteer Bulletin Board. Questions? Talk to Ruth Benning, Pastor Fred, Pastor Ben, or Alecia Meline.

GRANDCAMP - GOOD EARTH VILLAGE

KEEPING IT BEAUTIFUL

Please help us keep our flowers and landscaping looking beautiful. We are looking for a very small commitment from a few people to help with the weeding this summer. If anyone would like to volunteer, please contact Genise Troutman at home: 206-6169 or cell: 269-0918.

APPRECIATION

We would like to show our appreciation for all the musicians who have shared their skill and talent by singing and/or playing for any activity/service at OSLC. A special " Music Appreciation" reception will be held in their honor on Sunday, June 5 at the coffee fellowship time following the 9:00 am service. Please plan to attend and thank these people for their contributions to our music here at Our Saviors.

CAN YOU HELP?

During the month of May, OSLC will be collecting and donating items to the Gift of Life Transplant House here in Rochester. Gift of Life Transplant House was founded in 1984 by kidney transplant patient Ed Pompeian. His vision and mission was to provide Mayo Clinic transplant patients with high quality affordable accommodations in a supportive home-like environment. Gift of Life provides services for solid organ, bone marrow and stem cell transplant patients and their families. It is a place of compassion, healing and hope for patients of all ages from all over the world. In this supportive environment we help ease the impact of the complex medical, financial, emotional and spiritual burdens families are faced with day to day on their transplant journey.

Gift of Life Transplant House Needs
