Luke 8:40-56
Gospel reading according to Luke.
 Glory to you, O Lord.

Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. Just then there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus’ feet and begged him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying.

As he went, the crowds pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her. She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her hemorrhage stopped. Then Jesus asked, “Who touched me?” When all denied it, Peter said, “Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you.” But Jesus said, “Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out from me.” When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.”

While he was still speaking, someone came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer.” When Jesus heard this, he replied, “Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved.” When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter, John, and James, and the child’s father and mother. They were all weeping and wailing for her; but he said, “Do not weep; for she is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But he took her by the hand and called out, “Child, get up!” Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he directed them to give her something to eat. Her parents were astounded; but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

The Gospel of the Lord.
 Praise to you, O Christ.

DO YOU HAVE A PASSION FOR CHILDREN, God's Word, and having fun? Teaching Sunday school is a wonderful way to serve. We have two openings in the Sunday school staff for this year. A team teacher is needed for the preschool-Kindergarten class, 1-3rd class, and the 4th-5th grade class. One teacher is already on-board for each class, but by co-teaching, the kids get to know more caring adults and teachers commit to only half of the weeks. Contact Carole Joyce carole35@charter.net for more info or to sign up.

JOIN THE FAMILY MINISTRY TEAM It meets 5-6 times a year to plan special intergeneration events for Sunday school AND look at overall faith formation needs. If you love kids, parents, and creative ideas please join us. Talk to Carole Joyce carole35@charter.net or David Flynn to find out more.
