John 10:11-18

<sup>11</sup>I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away — and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. <sup>13</sup>The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. <sup>14</sup>I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, <sup>15</sup>just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. <sup>17</sup>For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

THANKSGIVING FOR NEW LIFE

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

You were there, O God, at the beginning, when wind swept over the face of the waters, calling life to spring forth from chaos.

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

You were there, O God, with Elijah, when drought and famine threatened the life of a widow and her son, calling life to spring forth from flour and oil.

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

You were there, O God, on that first Easter Sunday, when the women went to the tomb and found it empty, calling life to spring forth from the grave.

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

We rejoice and give you thanks for the new life you give to us through Jesus' death and resurrection, opening the floodgates of your reconciling love, freeing us to live as Easter people.

Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Mission Support

ELCA Mission Support

When we financially support the Southeastern Minnesota Synod and ELCA Churchwide through our Mission Support, we are enabling a host of ministries! In our Synod this includes:

- pastoral care and support of congregations & leaders;
- holy experiments between congregations eager to explore new ways of doing ministry together (like our Shared Ministry with Good Shepherd!);
- opportunities to engage in accompaniment ministry locally and globally; congregational call processes (62 congregations engaged in call process this year).

Churchwide ministries include:

- planting and supporting new congregations;
- accompanying Lutheran churches around the world;
- supporting the work of seven ELCA seminaries and twenty-six colleges and universities; sustain ecumenical and interfaith relationships.
